Written for the Advertiser.
The Dreamer.
"I loved and honored, for words of beauty,
That give men a glimpse of Heaven,
And teach them, those lives alone are worthy,
That to highest thoughts are given."

Long hours they gaze on dreamy heights, Bathed in dull mist, or when
The sun emits its varying light,
All nature smiles between.
The dreamer reads in every stage,
Sweet thoughts in every scene,
And all the common way grows bright,
Like moving pictures, seen.

Ab, wealth of dreamer on Life's way!
Nor loves ambition's gold,
Far better Nature's melody,
Than wealth of kings, untold;
Who hears a song in tripping waves,
Music in every passing breeze,
While psalms from warbler's breast, and throat
Make music to the trees.

Sees from the majestic mountain top,
A prayer unheard, and weeping down,
Trio contained in by muck and gloom,
Inspired by incense all around;
As the white lily on the lake,
Dips down to kiss the waters pure,
Nor stoops to touch the fetid soil,
From which its roots rise spring secure.

Thrice happy is the dreamer's lot!
All dearest impulses afloat,
Breathed forth in glad and pleasant rhyme,
Laden with some, the yearning
Nature, sweet Nature all around;
Basking midst sunning, bird and bee,
Let those enslaved by toil and wealth abound,
Give me the singers life and I am free.

HIRAM.
A Narrow Escape.
The rural letter carrier, C. C. Lowell, while making his rounds, the 16th, had a very narrow chance of being killed by the two-thirty passenger. As he was coming through Stickney swamp, very near the Stickney crossing, he heard the whistle, and thinking it was for the Town Farm crossing, he drove on. The up train can't be seen until the track is reached, on account of an embankment.
As his horse climbed the grade he thought he heard the train, and when he reached the track, the train was seemingly within twenty feet of him.
He was driving a very spirited horse—
his one thought was to get off the track, and the thought was a quick one, as he snatched the whip and struck the horse at the same time, and the horse making a jump, just clearing, as the cars swept by.

Mrs. Henry Merrill is in very poor health.
Whooping cough is quite prevalent
around here.
Frank Osgood & Co. are driving out
with all kinds of fruit.
There were three fishermen boarding at James Ridlon's last week.
Mrs. Alice Gould and daughter from Boston are visiting Melville Gould.
Engene Wadsworth is in very poor health. It is doubtful if he lives very long.

A party from Hiram and South Hiram went to Hiram Falls, one day, and enjoyed a picnic dinner.
William Sargent, who has been sick for the past few weeks, is better and gone back to the section.
Elias Gould, aged 92, is one of a thousand. Although quite deaf, he is able to do considerable work on the farm.
Octavius Ridlon is preparing to build another barn just below his house, with the intention of having a barn cellar.
As Daniel Tripp was on his way home from Cornish, he fell asleep on the bank at Hemlock bridge, June 17.
Henry Lord put his in, also. Eli With-
am and Ed Smith are going to try to get their into the water. They are lying high and dry now.

THE EIGHTY-SECOND ANNUAL
The annual Oxford Conference of Congregationalist churches was held at East Summer, Tuesday and Wednesday, June 13 and 14. The officers elected for the year are:
Moderator—Rev. B. S. Rideout, Norway
Scribe—W. H. Eastman, East Summer.
Treas.—Alton C. Wheeler, South Paris.
Capt. H. N. Bolster, who has been treasurer for many years, declined re-election because of poor health. A vote of thanks was extended to him from the conference for the faithful manner in which he had performed this duty.
The annual sermon was by Rev. B. S.
Rideout, and the closing sermon by Rev.
L. W. Morey of Gorham, N. H. The other ministers participating in the exercises were Rev. Messrs. Newport of Oxford, Fisher of Mexico, Gleason of Bethel, Holden of Andover, Muttart of East Summer.
Mr. Rideout's address Tuesday evening on Japan and Russia was an able and instructive one and was much appreciated by all present. Mr. Rideout is always welcomed here since his labors with the people one season several years ago.
The ladies served bountiful dinners
and supper at the vestry.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a humming sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be lost forever.
Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

HARBOR.
Edith Farrington will take a trip to Boston in the near future.
Miss Weston finished her school the 16th, and left for home the day following.
Mrs. John Burns and daughter of Portland, are visiting Mrs. C. W. Farrington.
John Coffin of Lawrence, Mass., formerly of this place, is a guest at C. W.
Farrington's and called on neighbors last week.
The parsonage received another coat of paint this week. The ladies cleaned the church and got dinner for the men who painted.

WEST STONEHAM.
Two Aged Brothers.
Capt. Ephraim McKee, who resides with his daughter, Mrs. Ida Hutchins, of Bethel, has been visiting his old friends and neighbors in this vicinity and North Stoneham, as he is a former resident of this place.
He is 91 years old, and has retained his faculties to a remarkable degree, and his hearing being quite good it is a pleasure to converse with him. He has an aged brother, Hiram McKee, of North Stoneham, who lives with his son,
R. M. McKee, and he is 90 years of age.
He is quite smart, but does not go away from home. I believe he is about the oldest man in town.

Ella Sawyer visited friends in Lovell, a few days ago.
Will Culbert recently bought a horse
of his brother-in-law, Art Grover, of Fryeburg.
H. B. McKee and three daughters,
Beryl, Winnie and Sarah, visited friends
in Norway.
Mr. and Mrs. Win Gammon visited their daughter, Mrs. Frank Keniston, of Lovell, a few days.
Mrs. Will Culbert and little son Theodore, visited her friend, Emma McAllister of Lovell; also attended Suncook grange.
Mrs. Selden Hanscom and son Eddie,
of Chatham, N. H., visited her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Sawyer, last Saturday and returned home Sunday.
The farmers are on the war path. The crows, woodchucks, insects, worms, etc., make a continual warfare in order to raise any crops at all.
J. Bartlett of East Stoneham is shingling and making other repairs on his buildings occupied by H. B. McKee.
Willis McAllister of North Lovell is working for him; also J. C. Sawyer.

EAST FRYEBURG.
They have a new lawn swing at A. A.
McIntire's.
Parvul Kenerson has returned to his grandmother's, Mrs. B. G. Seavey's.
Armond Warren is peeling quite a quantity of poplar on Pleasant mountain.
C. H. Warren is away on a business trip, principally to purchase an automobile.
Nine from Philadelphia came to Carter Hill, week before last, for the summer season.
Percy Walker has made some repairs
on his barn, work done by B. C. Chadbourne and A. E. Cole.
Ed Smith had his wagon very nicely
painted recently, the work being done
by Willard McKusick of Denmark.
Frank Buzzell called on his friends,
Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McIntire, Friday
the 16th, on the way to West Baldwin.
Mr. and Mrs. Carol Allen of Lovell, spent the day at A. A. McIntire's recently passing a part of the time on Lake Kezar fishing.
Mr. and Mrs. Preston Meserve are back with Mrs. Meserve's mother, Mrs.
McLuca, on account of Mrs. McLuca's ill-health. She was unable to do her work alone.
School closed at East Fryeburg Thursday, June 15, after a very successful term taught by Miss Grover of Boothbay.
It is hoped that she will return to teach the fall term.
F. A. Holt and wife and Lyman Hobbs and wife, attended the graduation exercises at Bridton, Thursday, June 15th.
Alice Maude Hobbs and Bertha Harnden
were among the graduates.
Mrs. Augusta Thompson from Fair view House, Lovell, and Carrie Smith from Bennett McDaniel's, Lovell, were the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Wm. F. Smith, Sunday, June 11th.
The Sabbath school had an entertainment at the Band hall a short time ago,
the proceeds to go toward repairing the hall. The hall has been nicely painted outside, this spring, and needs some work done on the inside very much.
A. E. Cole and B. C. Chadbourne rolled in their logs on that were on the bank at Hemlock bridge, June 17.
Henry Lord put his in, also. Eli With-
am and Ed Smith are going to try to get their into the water. They are lying
high and dry now.

CASCOW.
Isaac Decker has gone to Boston on business.
Everett Gay and wife, and Mae Hancock attended the graduating exercises
at North Bridgton, June 14.
William Colby has gone to South
Winthrop to visit his mother, Mrs. M.
Colby, who is very sick.
Fifty-five members of Casco grange visited Poland grange Saturday the 17th,
and enjoyed a very good entertainment
and supper.
There was an ice cream supper on the lawn at Casco Union church, Tuesday evening, from 6 until 8 o'clock followed by a lecture by the work of the W. C. T. U., by Miss Price.
Quite a number of summer boarders
are here, among them being Myra Eastman, who is a teacher in Portland, accompanied by ten young ladies, who will stay for a short time.
WEST LOVELL.
Geo. H. Fox went to South Paris recently.
Geo. Warren Nichols and wife have arrived at D. W. Nichols' for the summer.
Will Fox has a crew driving the logs out of Kezar Lake since the rains of last week.
Mrs. John Seavey and son Everett of Harbor visited her daughter, Mrs. Oris LeBaron, recently.
Pamela McDaniel returned to her boarding place at her niece's, Mrs. Nathaniel Fox's, after a visit among her relatives in Hollis.
Tillson Burke of Bethel was here recently and bought several veal calves which Z. McAllister carried to East Stoneham, Saturday. They are to be shipped to Brighton.
The habit of ball players to lay their loss of the game to any cause except poor playing, is shown by an exchange.
In speaking of a certain game it says,
"We lost this game by rotten umpiring at critical points." The score was 12 to 0 against them.

HANOVER.
Pleasantly Entertained.
Helen Staples spent the 16th, at Katherine Howe's in a very delightful manner.
The little gathering was in honor of Miss Katherine's birthday.
Original poems were read, and several pretty gifts testified to the loving esteem
in which she is held.
She furnished a most delicious dinner
to the few friends, who were so happy
as to be guests of the day.
The young ladies who attend Gould's academy are at home for the summer vacation.
The annual meeting of the Library association occurred Wednesday evening at the Library building.
Mrs. McCall and her two daughters from Dorchester, Mass., whom all remember so pleasantly, are again at the "break" for the summer.
Mrs. Viola Russell has gone to Massachusetts for a few weeks' visit with her relatives. We all hope to hear of her speedy recovery to health.
Mrs. Susie Thompson, who has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. Eva Hayford and Mrs. Orlando Russell, returned to her home in Andover, Sunday, the 18th.
Will Holt is very busy with his improvements at Indian Rock camp. His cook has arrived and he is ready for company. He anticipates a good season.
Several attended the afternoon service
at Rumford Point, June 18, and listened to a sermon by Rev. Sanford McDaniel, of Rumford Falls. He was assisted by Rev. Mr. Thompson, of the Congregational church. The singing by Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, was greatly enjoyed.
Mrs. Richmond, Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Nellie Silver, all from Rumford
Centre, spent last week with Mrs.
Richardson, at The Pines. Mrs. Richardson is planning to spend most of her time this summer in her studio with her china painting. She has her own kiln and does very artistic work.

Charles Norton of Lovell.
Llewellyn Hartford is working for I.
N. Lowell, in the steam mill.
Mrs. L. R. Hartford and Emma Howard visited in Portland the 14th.
Charlie Walker, wife and children called on her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Huntress, the 15th.
Moses Robbins and wife attended grange at Kezar Falls the 16th. Two new candidates, and a good time reported.
D. Huntress has been treating the inside of his house to a coat of paint and paper, and intends to paint the outside,
soon.
Wallace Durgin is building new chimneys and making other improvements on his house. Charles McDonald is doing the work.
The schoolhouse being built in Cross district will be ready for the fall term of school. School in the Lord district closed the 15th, taught by John Chapman. A pleasant and profitable term reported.

Catarrh

Is a constitutional disease. It originates in a scrofulous condition of the blood and depends on that condition. It often causes headache and dizziness, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, affects the vocal organs, disturbs the stomach, it is always radically and permanently cured by the blood-purifying, alterative and tonic action of

Hood's Sarsaparilla

This great medicine has wrought the most wonderful cures of all diseases depending on scrofula or the scrofulous habit. Hood's PILLS are the best cathartic.

NORTH WATERFORD.

Mrs. Mary Charles.

Mrs. Charles was born in Sweden about fifty years ago. About twenty-five years ago she was married to Merrill Charles, of Lovell, and lived with him at his father's, Daniel Charles', until the burning of the old home, when her husband bought the Jacob Greene farm. He died about twenty years ago, and she lived on with her young son, until her sudden death, on June 13th.

She was a woman of much culture and refinement, and though often ill, she bore her suffering with great fortitude. She was much interested in the work of the church, and though never uniting with any denomination, had often expressed a wish to do so. She will be sadly missed in the Sabbath school, where she was a beloved teacher.

She leaves an only son, Frank, now twenty-three years old, and several sisters.

Schools are closed till September.

James Brown and wife have returned from their visit to New Hampshire.

Sumner Grover, wife and son, have returned from a short visit to Sumner.

Raymond Knight is home from Orono, where he is attending the Agricultural college.

About 150 new books have been bought for the Odd Fellows Library. Let the good work go on.

George Brownell and wife have returned from their sojourn at the McIntire cottage at Pappoose Pond.

Frank Charles is coming to live with his uncle, Alphonso Charles, and will close the house where he lived with his mother.

The attendance at church Sunday was small—so many joining in the search for the body of the man drowned that day in Kezar Lake.

Robert York and wife of Locke's Mills visited at George Farmer's this week. Mr. York learned the blacksmith's trade from A. L. Greene, in this place, about 1870.

There will be a picnic on Fourth of July at Pappoose Pond, which, though under the auspices of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, is for all who would like to join them in a good time on that day.

GREENWOOD.

Holt District.

Winnie Hadakin has gone back to work for Mrs. John Gill.

M. H. Harrington worked the past week for Mr. Connors of Albany.

Julia Lyden is in town for a short time visiting her parents, John Lyden and wife.

W. A. Holt is building a new piazza which extends from the main house to the stable.

Mrs. J. P. Harrington is spending the summer on the farm with his mother. She is from Massachusetts.

School closed, last Friday, after a pleasant term taught by Annie E. Kimball of Waterford. Several visitors were present the last day and this program presented:

Eight pupils attended without missing a day for the term. Anna Deegan, a pupil at Gould Academy, kindly consented to recite the last day. It is expected school will begin, Aug. 13, with the same teacher.

EAST HEBRON.

E. Southerland is working for H. A. Record.

Belle Decosta has been at home from Auburn a few days.

Ernest Merrill has returned to his work in Massachusetts.

A. P. Brown's health is failing and his recovery is not anticipated.

A large collection of people were present at the Grange last Saturday.

E. Lane's daughter and granddaughter are with him enjoying country air.

The young ladies are practising riding on their wheels of late and are doing well.

The East Hebron school will close the present week. The school is well reported.

Mary Warren intends to go west if her sister, Mrs. R. Fuller is still gaining and able to do light work.

The change in the weather prevents the colts from leaving as many are still troubled with severe coughs.

H. A. Records, Eddie L. Record and Mrs. Martin Moschides visited this cousin, G. Foster and family in Sumner last Sunday.

Eddie L. Record caught a beautiful Kingfisher and sent them to a man who lives in the south and is collecting various specimens.

E. Harkov, formerly of this place but recently of Lewiston is with his cousin, B. Phillips. He is alone, having lost two wives and his children.

OTISFIELD.

Had an Eye Removed.

Chas. W. Sanborn returned home Friday. He has been in Portland for the past two weeks, where he underwent an operation for the removal of his right eye, which operation was successful, and he reports a consequent improvement in his general health.

Hiram H. Edwards.

Hiram H. Edwards passed away, June 17th, aged 71 years, 8 months and three days. He had been sick nearly a year with kidney trouble, dropsy and heart disease. He was a great sufferer and was unable to lie down the few past months before his death. Apoplexy caused his death at last.

He bore his sickness with patience, never murmuring. He was a good neighbor, always willing to help those in trouble. He leaves a widow, a son and daughter, four brothers and many other relatives and friends who deeply mourn their loss.

Funeral at his late residence, June 19, conducted by Rev. Mr. Jenkins. The floral tributes were many and beautiful.

G. A. Dyer has recently improved his barn by putting in new floors and cribs for his cows.

Karl E. Whitney is cutting cord wood for Jas. Thomsen on the L. L. Jilison lot, and boards at W. C. Turner's.

Some farmers in this vicinity are considerably provoked by the invasion of their fields by that pest, the orange hawk weed.

Daisie Ames is gaining slowly.

Charlie Spurr has gone to Boston.

Willie Edwards remains about the same.

Mary Cain is at work for Charles Jordan at Casco.

Mrs. Rose Edwards is suffering with a stomach trouble.

School closed in district No. 1, taught by Iva Spiller of Casco. It was a very profitable term, as she is one of our best teachers.

PIGEON HILL.

Extensive Repairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tyner of Arlington, Mass., carriage manufacturer, has made quite extensive repairs to their new farm buildings (Fuller farm), and expects to move into them this week for a few months. Their son and family from Arlington will move here in the fall to stay through the winter. Mrs. Chas. Morey has come down to the farm for the summer.

George Cox is at work at West Paris. He was at home Sunday.

A. D. Thayer has purchased a part of the Capt. Rich farm, adjoining his.

Rev. E. A. Davis will preach at the Free Baptist church on Sunday morning, July 2nd, at the usual hour.

Mrs. I. L. Bowker from Portland came home Saturday for a week or two's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Tuell.

Jennie Bradbury expects to go this week to Kennebunk Beach, where she, with friends from South Paris, will work at a summer boarding house for the season.

The Grammar school drama company went to Bryant's Pond Wednesday night and played Willowdale, the same drama that they played here at the close of the school.

Rev. E. S. Otton of Norway preached an excellent sermon to the grangers last Sunday afternoon, and the South Woodstock choir, Mr. and Mrs. Q. B. Perham, Mrs. Frank Davis and Al Andrews, with Jennie M. Brown, organist, furnished excellent music.

SWEDEN.

A few farmers in this vicinity have hoed their crops once, some are just commencing. Corn is low but good color, potatoes look extra well.

On account of low water, Dan True is having

WEST BUCKFIELD.

A "Hold-Up."
A western hold-up last Friday, when two men held up Kendall Winslow—not for his money, but for his tobacco. As Mr. Winslow is not addicted to the use of the weed, they did not "strike it rich," and on hearing a team approaching, they disappeared into the woods.

School closed Friday, the 23rd inst. F. E. Cooper is building a carriage house.

Vina and Jennie Bonney were at home Sunday.

Winnie Jordan is at work for Mrs. M. A. Warren.

Agnes Harriman went to Lovell, shopping, Saturday.

The Kemp family were at the ball here last Tuesday night—a very good show, as usual.

G. W. Emery, wife and daughter Edna, of Stow, visited at Perley McKee's one day last week.

The work on the grange hall is progressing finely, and will be ready for the celebration the 4th of July.

The optician, Nash, has been selling and repairing spectacles in this locality the past week. He has made his headquarters at Marshall Evans', while here.

M. T. Fox has repaired his stable here. He needed more room, as he expects to drive a four-horse hitch at the time this summer. The present driver is L. L. Harriman, of this place.

We, the undersigned, agree to close our stores Friday afternoon from July 7 to Sept. 1, inclusive.

Thomas Smiley, L. M. Lunt, R. L. Fowers, G. A. Allen.

EAST STONEHAM.

A Chapter of Accidents.
Several accidents occurred here, last week. Last Tuesday afternoon, Joe Flanders, a lad about 16 years of age, was thrown from his wheel and hurt badly. His face was scratched and bruised. He was found lying unconscious a short distance from Chas. McKee's, his face covered with blood, and the wheel standing near. He was taken in the doctor summoned, his wounds dressed and all done for him that could be done, but he did not regain consciousness until midnight. In two or three days was out and in a fair way to try it over again. Next time he may not escape so well.

Last Friday forenoon, while working in V. H. Littlefield's saw mill, Asa Keniston had a part of the forefinger of his right hand sawed off. A doctor dressed the wound.

Friday forenoon, Ralph Adams met with an accident while working in the woods for Littlefield. George White house and James Merrill were with him at the time. Mr. Adams slipped and put his hand out on a log to keep from falling, just as Merrill struck down on the log. The third finger of Adams' left hand was nearly cut off. An effort is being made to save the finger and have it grow on.

It is quite a misfortune to Adams and Keniston to be laid up as both have families dependent on them. Mr. Littlefield was short of help before these accidents occurred.

The Farringtons, who own a cottage on the shore of Lake Kawaden have arrived in town.

About 9 a. m., Saturday, we learned Mrs. Josephine Blackford was suffering from a sudden attack of heart trouble, and it was feared she might die. She is more comfortable.

SUMMER.

Dyer-Anderson.
A very pretty home wedding occurred in Stoneham at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Dyer, Wednesday evening, June 14, when their only daughter, Fidelia May, was united in marriage to Leland J. Andrews in presence of near relatives.

The parlor, where the wedding was consummated was very prettily decorated in green and white. The arch under which the young couple entered the state of wedded bliss was composed of evergreen and roses.

At 9 p. m. the Fairy Wedding March was played on the organ by Mrs. Edith Abbott. The couple marched to the arch preceded by Mrs. Wallace L. Dyer as bridesmaid and Wallace L. Dyer, a brother of the bride, as best man.

Rev. J. H. Little, pastor of the Universalist church at South Paris, performed the ceremony, the ring service being used.

The bride wore an elegant gown of white Swiss muslin, trimmed with lace. The groom wore the usual suit of black. Mrs. Dyer, the bridesmaid, wore a gown of steel silk lacedown with lace trimmings.

After the ceremony the relatives congratulated the young couple and wished them many years of wedded bliss. Refreshments were served.

V. M. Beckler, who has been to Turner to work, has returned.

H. E. Irish of Turner is in town superintending the tying of squares at the mill.

School at Morrill schoolhouse closed, Friday, with an entertainment in the evening by the children. The exercises showed careful training. The exercises consisted of speaking pieces, charades, tableau and singing. A very successful term of school was taught by Alice Russell of Turner.

EAST BETHEL.

SUMMER CLOTHING.

The last few seasons have seen a great change in clothing productions. Lots of new garments are now made for man's comfort. Among the most useful are the Outing Suit. Outing Suits are made of light weight worsteds, cassimeres, flannels and other tropical weight fabrics. The coats are made without any linings. The pants are cut full and loose, and provided with belt loops and turn up at bottom. We make a strong showing of these useful suits at all points from $5 to $10.

All of our Bicycle Suits have been marked down to $2.50. All sizes are here at present.

Norway's Fourth.
There was less excitement than usual in Norway, Independence Day. The celebrating began Monday afternoon, and continued all night and the next day, Monday night, although in some central localities there was as much noise as usual, in most portions of the village there was less disturbance, and very little vandalism is reported. Some citizens were away Sunday, and Monday as well. Tuesday, quite a number went away for the day.

A large number of people went up the lake, Capt. Crommett reporting the largest July 4th business since he has run the boat. Nearly all the cottagers spent the day at their summer homes. The ball games were well patronized and the streets were very quiet.

No serious injuries are reported, though there were some cases of slight burns.

Sunday will pass down in history as a rainy day.
